

LISTENING COMPREHENSION

LISTEN TO "BEAGLE BRIGADE" AND MARK TRUE OR FALSE.

		TRUE	FALSE
01.	Some air travellers bring hidden threats to the United States.
02.	More than 80 dogs, especially beagles, are stationed at Miami International Airport.
03.	Ferris, a highly-trained sniffing machine, searches for tools of terrorism.
04.	For both Ferris and its handler the work is interesting.
05.	The fruit disease citrus canker has its origin on the Asian continent.
06.	If Ferris finds food and you have lied about it, you will have to pay 600 dollars.
07.	Some people have tried to trick the customs officers.
08.	When a dog finds food during training, it starts to bark.
09.	Processed food does not pose any threat to American agriculture.
10.	Amongst others also American mail facilities use trained sniffing dogs.

QUESTIONNAIRE

01. What do some air travellers bring to the USA?
02. Which elite team tries to keep infiltrators (Eindringling) away?
03. What is citrus canker?
04. What are the fines (Geldstrafe) for importing not-permitted food?
05. What happens with the found contraband (Schmugglerware)?
06. How are the sniffing machines trained?
07. Why are beagles ideal for this job?
08. Where are these dogs used?