

LISTENING COMPREHENSION

LISTEN TO "COLD FACTS" AND MARK TRUE OR FALSE.

		TRUE	FALSE
01.	California's citrus belt is the leading citrus producer of the USA.
02.	The damage on the shown fruit is called the ice mark.
03.	Jody Wollenman and his brother are specialised on growing only citrus fruits.
04.	Some farmers use wind machines and fires to keep their fruits warm.
05.	Only citrus crops are affected by the freezing temperatures.
06.	Luckily the insurance companies pay for all the growers' losses.
07.	The freezes affect California's unemployment rate, too.
08.	A number of packing houses shut down completely after a freeze has occurred.
09.	Inspectors at LoBue's use flashlights to check the oranges for damage.
10.	Each deep freeze helps learning something new.

QUESTIONNAIRE

01. What can generally be said about California's citrus region?
02. Which damage does Jody show?
03. What can be said about the Wollenman's farm?
04. Which methods do farmers use to save oranges?
05. Which temperatures can citrus crops withstand (aushalten)?
06. What does a freeze (Kälteperiode) mean for growers?
07. In how far is there also a human toll (Tribut)?
08. What do inspectors use to meet the high standards?